Surge Video Series: an introduction to Rapid Response in Disasters and Crisis

IFRC

What is Surge? Which are the key concepts and principles in emergency response for each of the sectors? What are the tools and different resources available to carry out the response? How do the different sectors work with each other?

This curriculum is meant as an introduction to Surge. Each 20-minute course includes an episode focusing on each of the sectors involved. You will be invited to watch the videos, do the self-checks on each of topics and, finally, explore related resources.
