

HOW DO I GET MEDICAL CANNABIS IN MELBOURNE?

Medical Marijuana Treatment Australia

The process for obtaining medical cannabis is the same in Melbourne as it is in other Australian provinces, however, the process is still quite different than the process of getting other types of prescriptions. Medical cannabis in Australia is regulated under the Cannabis Act.

At Medicanna Health, we help our patients through every part of the process. The first step is to schedule a virtual appointment using our online web form. You do not need a doctor's referral to schedule an appointment.

Once you have been granted a prescription, you can order your prescription through an Approved Licensed Producer. Medical cannabis is tax deductible in Australia and may even be covered by some health insurance policies.

Medicanna Health serves patients across Melbourne including Victoria,

WHAT ARE THE REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE USE OF MEDICAL CANNABIS IN MELBOURNE?

Although healthcare is governed through provincial bodies, the Cannabis Act is the regulatory framework that guides the use of medical cannabis across the country. Medicanna Health is compliant with both federal and provincial legislation that relates to healthcare and medical cannabis.

To access medical cannabis, patients must obtain a prescription from a health care practitioner. At Medicanna Health, you will have a comprehensive consultation where a medical cannabis prescription will be granted if deemed appropriate for your ailments or symptoms. Then, a licensed cannabis producer will fill your prescription for products such as CBD or THC oils, cannabis topicals or cannabis flower.

With your prescription, you can travel anywhere in Australia with your medical cannabis. You may not take your medical cannabis with you on international trips at this time.

Request Appointment at www.medicannahealth.com.au