Your role will involve a diverse set of programs and tools, and you will be expected to adapt and learn new technologies as needed.

Responsibilities:

Collaborate with design and strategy teams to create innovative, interactive experiences.
Prototype and develop interactive objects and environments using a diverse set of programs.
Research and implement new technologies and tools to enhance our design capabilities.
Test and debug prototypes to ensure functionality and performance.
Document and communicate technical specifications and requirements to the team.

Qualifications:

Proven experience as a Creative Technologist or similar role.
Proficiency in TouchDesigner
Proficiency in a diverse set of programming languages and tools is a plus (e.g., JavaScript, Python, C++, Unity, Arduino, Processing, etc.).
Experience with hardware prototyping and physical computing is a plus.
Strong problem-solving skills and the ability to think creatively.
Excellent communication and teamwork skills.
A portfolio showcasing your ability to prototype and develop interactive experiences.

How to Apply:

Interested candidates are invited to submit their resume, cover letter, and portfolio to [email address]. Please include "Creative Technologist Application - [Your Name]" in the subject line of your email.
